- Candidate must submit a letter of recommendation which should be from the applicant's current, or most recent drama instructor

Candidate Eligibility

Scholarship Committee Members will evaluate the applications separately and meet to discuss and determine their selections. Applicants for both the Theatre Angel Scholarship and the Bryan Jackson Scholarship will be selected from the pool of applicants based upon the following considerations:

- * The quality of their personal statement – i.e. realistic expectations, clarity and maturity of expression;
- * The nature of their recommendations. In particular, is the student responsible, willing to do any work as needed, punctual and able to collaborate?
- * The quality and breadth of the student's theatrical work as evidenced in an audition, interview, video submission, or recommendation from industry professionals.

Your application and all submissions must be received by the

Fine and Performing Arts Scholarship Committee on or before Friday, June 5, 2026, at 5:00pm

The above application and submissions may be personally delivered or sent by USPS mail to:

Sara Goff

Eastern Washington University
