

SOCIAL WORK CAREERS IN LATINO COMMUNITIES

Listen to the panel outline all the opportunities a Social Work degree can do to help support the Latino Community. end of the webinar.

27TH JANUARY 2022

2:00 PM - 3.00 PM

PUB 317

Limited
Seats

Zoom Option:
Bit.ly/3Gqzuc0

Moderator

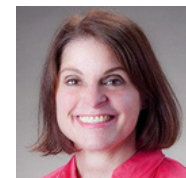

Dr. Deb Svoboda

Graduate Program
Director & Associate
Professor of Social Work
Affiliated Faculty of Gender, Women's, and
Sexuality Studies

Panelist

Dr. Kathryn DePaolis

Assistant
Professor
BASW Program
Director

MSW Graduate Student

Guido Davico

B.A. Psychology
My dream job is to obtain my LICSW credential and work with at-risk youth, in a community or juvenile jail setting, to diagnose and holistically treat mental health and/or substance use disorders

MSW Graduate Student

Ingrid Rivera

B.A. Law & Justice and Psychology
I hope to open my own private practice where I can work with youth of color and those who's second language is English

B.A. S.W. Student

Alexis Gallegos

I plan to gain both knowledge and experience from the communities I would be working with, to then focus on going into policy change.

B.A. S.W. Student

Lucy Aguirre Figueroa

