

Poinsettias are in the plant family

Euphorbiaceae

They are native to southern Mexico where they grow wild as shrubs that are up to 12 feet tall.

Brought to you by Eastern Washington University Biology Department

<https://www.ewu.edu/cstem/biology/>