

Darwin Day Cake and Art Competition

WHEN: Friday, February 13, at 3:30 pm (30min after the 2pm Seminar)

WHERE: ISC Building, Room 301

Please turn in entry form by 2/13. (Email BioOfficeStudent@ewu.edu that you will be entering the competition so we can get a head count). Any group or individual may compete. Prizes will be awarded to student competitors. Cakes and Artwork must reflect some aspect of Darwin's work.

Name:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Darwin Cake Entry

Title of Entry:

Description of Cake:

(Deliver cakes to ISC 301 on Friday 2/13 from 8a.m.-12a.m. for judging)

Example

Title: Galapagos Tortoise

Description:

This is an espresso cake with espresso icing, chocolate decorations, and fondant body parts, with isomalt water. They have created Harriet a Galapagos Tortoise who was collected by Darwin.

Darwin Art Entry

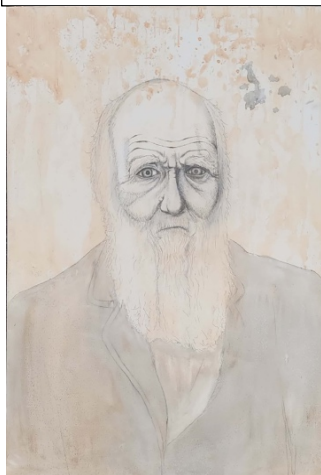

Title of Entry:

Description of Artwork:

(Drop artwork off in CEB 119 before 5pm on Thursday 2/13, or in ISC 301 on Friday 2/13 between 8 a.m.-12a.m. for judging)

Example

Title: Darwin

Description:

Made by Hope Johnson

This art piece was made with tea and calligraphy ink. Hope is a Senior in Art Education.

