

EWU in the High School
Departmental Criteria for CEP Instructors

Department Name: History

Course(s): HIST 102: World to 1500 HIST 106: Western Civ 2
HIST 103: World from 1500 HIST 110: Am. Experience
HIST 105 Western Civ 1 HIST 104: East Asia

Qualifications:

Minimum

18 graduate hours in history

Equivalencies

Combinations of the following will be considered:
graduate hours in closely-related fields professional development activity
NEH Seminars
AP teaching and training experience
National Board certification other qualification as evaluated by the department

Preferred

M.A. in History
Ph.D. in History

Equivalencies

MA in closely-related fields (Government, American Studies, English, Anthropology, Social Studies Ed., etc.)
Ph.D. in closely-related fields

Notes:

The History Department takes a holistic approach to evaluating CEP Instructor candidates. While an M.A. in History is the preferred qualification, many of our instructors hold some set of equivalencies.

Signature: Samy Abela Date: 3/8/17

Position Title: Professor of History, History Department CEP Coordinator