

APPROVED UNTIL
JAN 30 2025

Activist IN RESIDENCE

WAGE Center, Monroe 207
Wednesdays from 3:00 - 5:00 PM
Light refreshments will be served

January 15th

"Breaking Free from the Non-Profit Industrial Complex"

January 29th

"Indigenous Wisdom
and Climate Policy: A Path to a Sustainable Future"

February 5th

"Reclaiming the Narrative: Transforming
Trauma into Artful Resistance"

February 19th

"Weaving the Future: An
Organizing Model
Rooted in Traditional Knowledge and Collective Vision"

Jacob Johns

Workshops by a Hopi and Akimel O'odham environmental defender who has worked tirelessly to protect water and prevent the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline.

GENDER, WOMEN'S & SEXUALITY STUDIES

Those needing special accommodations should contact Lili Mackin at lmackin@ewu.edu at least 3 days prior to the event.